Achievements

BBC

Hand picked by the BBC's design team to showcase a new digital product to harmonise alongside the existing BBC digital catalogue. This included a human-centric approach with the goal to attract young adults into using BBC products through their digital devices.

Caledonian Creates

Event held at the Glasgow Caledonian University where I was able to showcase design work to those in industry alongside freelance designers.

Experience

Freelance Designer

Oct 20–Present

Designer for local businesses. In particular personal branding for personal trainers and cafe stores. With a strong focus on digital but also printed content. This improved interpersonal skills as well as experience within working under swift deadlines.
